Hilton London Tower Bridge

The Impossible into Possible

13th September 2024

Award Nomination Form Charity of the Year

Specific Award Criteria: CMSUK Charity of the Year 2024- Judged by the whole CMSUK Membership.
Nothing is impossible the words itself say "I'm possible"

Awarded to a charity that the CMSUK membership judges believe has delivered outstanding service to its service users, community and general population. Has been clear in its goals and strategy and demonstrated excellence, especially within the last 12 months.

Nominations should demonstrate how they have delivered their mission and vision. How your work has supported others, created life-changing impact, making the seemingly impossible possible.

- Nominations should select one CMSUK Charity Organisational Value and Valued Behaviour that you believe best aligns with your organisations vision and mission, against which all CMSUK members will review your entry against.
- Nominations should provide clear evidence of their work and its impact.
- Nominations must also include a reflective piece on Impossible into Possible Nothing is impossible the words itself say "I'm possible"
- Reflective pieces should be no more than 1200 words and can take the format of a case study or description.

Generic Award Criteria:

- All nominations must conform with data protection and information provided without consent from the persons involved must be recorded in a way that no client can be identified from the information. Unless you have written consent form that person.
- All nominations must be supported by testimonials which are extra to any applicable word count. Testimonials external to your own company carry more weight. Please number all the pages of your nomination document and ensure each page, including any testimonials, has the Nominee name on.
- Please submit all of the above to: info@cmsuk.org
- Closing date for nominations is Friday 7th June 2024
- Finalist nominees and/or their testimonials will need to pre-record a 3-minute reflection video to be shared on the day and on the event page of our website after the event. The project team will contact finalists to make arrangements for these over the summer.
- All finalist nominees are required to attend the Awards Event on Friday 13th September 2024. In the event of this not being possible the finalist nominee will need to appoint a suitable proxy.
